

Man of Sin – Son of Perdition: When is he to manifest himself?

“Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition.”

2 Thessalonians 2:3

Introduction

“While I was with them in the world, I kept them in thy name: those that thou gavest me I have kept, and none of them is lost, but the son of perdition; that the scripture might be fulfilled.” John 17:12.

Part 1

Was not the man of sin revealed before Paul wrote these prophetic words?

- Read 2 Thessalonians Chapter 2
- Read Isaiah 14: 12-20

“How art thou fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning! how art thou cut down to the ground, which didst weaken the nations!

For thou hast said in thine heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north:

I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the most High.

Yet thou shalt be brought down to hell, to the sides of the pit.

They that see thee shall narrowly look upon thee, and consider thee, saying, Is this the man that made the earth to tremble, that did shake kingdoms;

That made the world as a wilderness, and destroyed the cities thereof; that opened not the house of his prisoners?

All the kings of the nations, even all of them, lie in glory, every one in his own house.

Thou art cast out of thy grave like an abominable branch, and as the raiment of those that are slain, thrust through with a sword, that go down to the stones of the pit; as a carcase trodden under feet.

Thou shalt not be joined with them in burial, because thou hast destroyed thy land, and slain thy people: the seed of evildoers shall never be renowned.”

- Read Ezekiel 28:1-6

“The word of the LORD came again unto me, saying,

“Son of man, say unto the prince of Tyrus, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because thine heart is lifted up, and thou hast said, I am a God, I sit in the seat of God, in the midst of the seas; yet thou art a man, and not God, though thou set thine heart as the heart of God:

Behold, thou art wiser than Daniel; there is no secret that they can hide from thee:

With thy wisdom and with thine understanding thou hast gotten thee riches, and hast gotten gold and silver into thy treasures:

By thy great wisdom and by thy traffick hast thou increased thy riches, and thine heart is lifted up because of thy riches:

Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Because thou hast set thine heart as the heart of God.”

- Read Revelation 13:18

“Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man; and his number is Six hundred threescore and six.”

- One quote in the SOP regarding 666

“All the symbolical representations serve a double purpose. From them God’s people learn not only that the physical forces of the earth are under the control of the Creator, but also that under his control are the religious movements of the nations. Especially is this true with reference to the enforcement of Sunday observance. He who gave His people, through His servant Moses, instruction in regard to the sanctity of the Sabbath—as recorded in (Exodus 31:11-18)—will in the hour of trial preserve those who keep this day as a sign of loyalty to Him. God’s commandment-keeping people believe that He will fulfil His promise to protect them. By actual experience they know that the Lord sanctifies them and grants to them the seal of His approval as commandment keepers. Those who read the Scriptures with an intense desire to know what the Spirit saith unto the churches know that God lives and reigns.

In the last days Satan will appear as an angel of light, with great power and heavenly glory, and claim to be the lord of the whole earth. He will declare that the Sabbath has been changed from the seventh to the first day of the week; and as lord of the first day of the week he will present this spurious sabbath as a test of loyalty to him. Then will take place the final fulfilment of the Revelator’s prophecy:

“They worshiped the dragon which gave power unto the beast: and they worshiped the beast, saying, Who is like unto the beast? who is able to make war with him? And there was given unto him a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and power was given unto him to continue forty and two months. And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme His name, and His tabernacle, and them that dwell in heaven. And it was given unto him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations. And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world.”

“And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon. And he exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him, and causeth the earth and them that dwell therein to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed. And he doeth great wonders, so that he maketh fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men, and deceiveth them that dwell on the earth by the means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, which had the wound by a sword, and did live. And he had power to give life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed. And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads: and that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name. Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man; and his number is Six hundred threescore and six.”

In connection with this Scripture, the entire fourteenth chapter of Revelation should be studied much by God's people. Verses nine to eleven bring to view the special message of warning against worshiping the beast and his image and receiving his mark in the forehead or in the hand. This warning is to be given to the world by those who are mentioned in the twelfth verse as keeping "the commandments of God and the faith of Jesus." Manuscript 153, 1902.

Part 2.

From the time of Paul's death in Rome in 67 AD to the time John wrote by inspiration the book of Revelation around 90 AD, the man of sin was not revealed yet. Of course, we know from Heaven to the time Lucifer was cast down into the earth, he can be traced in the Garden of Eden, at the tower of Babel after the flood and many times throughout history.

"And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him." Revelation 12:9

However, according to Paul in 1 Thessalonians 2:3, the Second Coming will not occur before Lucifer manifest himself as an angel of light. How close are we to witness this manifestation?

What will be the signs of this manifestation soon to come upon the world?

Answer:

1. Sunday observance will be agitated.
2. Religious freedom will be lost.
3. The principle of religious freedom will be removed: separation of church and state.
4. Just like Toe
5. The Tower of Babel was the first New World Order attempt on earth, Sodom and Gomorrah was a sign a licentiousness, Egypt was a manifestation of atheism and France was the only country to legislate that there is no god, United States of America which is the only country ever to have legislate a Church and State Separation Amendment, will soon veto that principle.
6. Because of that rejection of the Church and State principle, United States of America will speak like the dragon and open the way for the manifestation of Lucifer.

Part 3.

Unconquerable Forces Waiting

"Those who eat the flesh and drink the blood of the Son of God will bring from the books of Daniel and Revelation truth that is inspired by the Holy Spirit. They will start into action forces that cannot be repressed. The lips of children will be opened to proclaim the mysteries that have been hidden from the minds of men.

We are standing on the threshold of great and solemn events. Many of the prophecies are about to be fulfilled in quick succession. Every element of power is about to be set to work. Past history will be repeated; old controversies will arouse to new life, and peril will beset God's people on every side. Intensity is taking hold of the human family. It is permeating everything upon the earth....

Study Revelation in connection with Daniel, for history will be repeated.... We, with all our religious advantages, ought to know far more today than we do know.

Angels desire to look into the truths that are revealed to the people who with contrite hearts are searching the word of God and praying for greater lengths and breadths and depths and heights of the knowledge which He alone can give.

As we near the close of this world's history, the prophecies relating to the last days especially demand our study. The last book of the New Testament Scriptures is full of truth that we need to understand. Satan has blinded the minds of many so that they have been glad of any excuse for not making the Revelation their study. But Christ through His servant John has here declared what shall be in the last days; and He says, "Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written therein."

The books of Daniel and the Revelation should be bound together and published. A few explanations of certain portions might be added, but I am not sure that these would be needed.

This is the suggestion that I made to Elder Haskell which resulted in the book he published. The need is not filled by this book. It was my idea to have the two books bound together, Revelation following Daniel, as giving fuller light on the subjects dealt with in Daniel. The object is to bring these books together, showing that they both relate to the same subjects.

A message that will arouse the churches is to be proclaimed. Every effort is to be made to give the light, not only to our people, but to the world. I have been instructed that the prophecies of Daniel and the Revelation should be printed in small books, with the necessary explanations, and should be sent all over the world. Our own people need to have the light placed before them in clearer lines." Testimonies to the Ministers, 116, 117.

Part 4.

Resetting the Stage through History and Prophecy: From Babel to today!

a. Characteristics of Babel: Setting up the first New World Order after the Flood Genesis 11:1-9

"And the whole earth was of one language, and of one speech.

And it came to pass, as they journeyed from the east, that they found a plain in the land of Shinar [Daniel 1:2 "And the Lord gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, with part of the vessels of the house of God: which he carried into the land of Shinar – Babylon – where Kuwait is today - to the house of his god; and he brought the vessels into the treasure house of his god."]; and they dwelt there.

And they said one to another, Go to, let us make brick, and burn them throughly. And they had brick for stone, and slime had they for mortar.

And they said, Go to, let us build us a city and a tower, whose top may reach unto heaven; and let us make us a name, lest we be scattered abroad upon the face of the whole earth. And the LORD came down to see the city and the tower, which the children of men builded.

And the LORD said, Behold, the people is one, and they have all one language; and this they begin to do: and now nothing will be restrained from them, which they have imagined to do.

Go to, let us go down, and there confound their language, that they may not understand one another's speech.

So the LORD scattered them abroad from thence upon the face of all the earth: and they left off to build the city.

Therefore is the name of it called Babel; because the LORD did there confound the language of all the earth: and from thence did the LORD scatter them abroad upon the face of all the earth.”

Stage 1:

- Babel means confusion – scattering – leaving the city and dwelling abroad - country
- Babel was the first attempt after the flood to establish a New World Order: “let us make us a name lest we be scattered – “And God blessed Noah and his sons, and said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth.” Genesis 9:1.
- One language – “And the LORD said, Behold, the people is one, and they have all one language; and this they begin to do: and now nothing will be restrained from them, which they have imagined to do.” Genesis 11:6 – just like before the flood – “And GOD saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually.” Genesis 6:5.
- Living in the city: country living is what the Creator wants for His people – to till the earth – to practice agriculture – but in most nations today, people live in the cities – which is a fairly new phenomena in our era since the Industrial Revolution of the late 1800’s.
- Build a Tower: Stargate – since man sinned, stargates have been found in many mythologies - man wants to return to the Garden of Eden and have access to the Tree of Life – man wants to travel through space and reach other galaxies, other worlds.

In esoteric-spiritualistic demonic teaching - Stargates:

“Are Portals from one grid program/ realm/ dimension to another. Another view of it is as an etheric inter-dimensional energy alignment between two points in interstellar space which allows high vibrational energies to pass through long distances of space along the space-time continuum. These alignments are particularly crucial at this time as the vibration of the Earth is speeding up as we enter the Photon Belt.

- Stargates allow high vibrational interstellar energies to permeate the etheric grids of the Earth, with ease and grace, thus allowing the energies to integrate fully into the forming etheric grid structures of the Earth. These Sacred Site entry vortexes are opened once every 3 months on the equinoxes and solstices, and other times of sacred significance and astrological alignment in Earth's current history.”
<http://www.awakening-healing.com/Stargate Vortexes.htm>

The Tower of Babel was to be a Stargate, just like the Pyramids of Egypt and many other sites on the earth today, which are defined as Stargate:

“The Large Hadron Collider (LHC) is the world's largest and most powerful particle accelerator. It first started up on 10 September 2008, and remains the latest addition to CERN's accelerator complex.” home.cern/topics/large-hadron-collider

"Like the pyramids, the CERN LHC which some compare to the Tower of Babel is a "Gateway of the God" and presumably only the initiates know the encoded secrets.

For those not in the know, the Giza pyramids were/are glorified tombs dedicated to the pharaohs and the gods, just as the LHC to most people is "just" a machine that smashes together subatomic particles.

Behind the veil, however, they are much, much more...

They whisper knowledge that is cosmic, extra-dimensional and mysterious, just below the threshold of reality. The whispers are just loud enough to hint that the secrets are there, but quiet enough to make sure it's up to us to act on our subconscious awareness and decide to follow wherever it goes.

The path to truth is indeed a bottomless rabbit hole; how deep we can go depends on our desire, focus, dedication, intuition, creativity, balance, etc. etc.

We need to know how to think, with our heart and mind, and not what to think which any programmable machine can do. Only then we begin to hear more clearly the whispers telling us where to dig for treasure. CERN's Large Hadron Collider has a secret side that appears to be fully celestial in nature, ultimately pointing its ethereal finger to the Moon and Orion, as well as Mars.

By 2008 I knew that the Moon was a key component of the design. But it wasn't until this year (2015) that the rabbit hole finally led me to... Orion. The LHC, I would now suggest, is an Orion "Stargate".

At least in the sense that the Giza pyramids are also an Orion Stargate of sorts.

Is the LHC a "Gate of the God", a "Tower of Babel", symbolically or literally connecting "heaven and earth"? Is it an "Orion Stargate" blueprint that can, if sufficiently decoded, help us become a more inter-dimensional civilization? And just who is behind the LHC secret design?" http://www.bibliotecapleyades.net/ciencia/ciencia_colisionadorhadrones42.htm

- The Moon has been shown to be a major component of the LHC secret design and here it is confirmed further by the fact that the Apollo program also intelligently interacts with the LHC...

The Apollo Earth-Moon connection echoes the LHC-SPS relationship (= Earth-Moon ratio) CERN/LHC is partially situated in the French town Saint-Genus-Pouilly; the name "Pouilly" apparently comes from the Latin "Appolliacum"; in Roman times there was a temple dedicated to Apollo in the area.

"Apollo" is also said to mean "to destroy" or "the destroyer" (= Apollyon) and right at CERN/LHC famously stands a statue of Shiva, a Hindu deity known as "the Destroyer"

Above you see a statue of the Hindu "god" SHIVA, right in front of the CERN building, (European Center for Research in Particle Physics) in Geneva.

We know that scientists worldwide have been working on LHC development, including Indian scientists, but a 2m high statue of the most feared hindu deity EVER, in front of the LHC facility, seems too odd."

Stage 2. New World Order throughout History:

Charlemagne – Napoleon – Hitler

Charlemagne, Napoleon and Hitler all dreamed of a New World Order where all nations could be drawn together under a common cause. Their dream never died and other dreamers are presently on stage to set up this One World Government through: Climate Change Theory, Global Poverty Eradication, Social Justice, Sunday Law Enforcement!

- Charlemagne: "Charlemagne, also called Charles I, byname Charles the Great (born April 2, 747?—died January 28, 814, Aachen, Austrasia [now in Germany]), king of the Franks (768–814), king of the Lombards (774–814), and first emperor (800–814) of the Romans and of what was later called the Holy Roman Empire."
<https://www.britannica.com/biography/Charlemagne>
- Napoleon: "The French Revolution was a period of far-reaching social and political upheaval in France that lasted from 1789 until 1799, and was partially carried forward by Napoleon during the later expansion of the French Empire. The Revolution overthrew the monarchy, established a republic, experienced violent periods of political turmoil, and finally culminated in a dictatorship under Napoleon that rapidly brought many of its principles to Western Europe and beyond. Inspired by liberal and radical ideas, the Revolution profoundly altered the course of modern history, triggering the global decline of absolute monarchies while replacing them with republics and liberal democracies. Through the Revolutionary Wars, it unleashed a wave of global conflicts that extended from the Caribbean to the Middle East. Historians widely regard the Revolution as one of the most important events in human history.” https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/French_Revolution “Napoleon Bonaparte (1769-1821), also known as Napoleon I, was a French military leader and emperor who conquered much of Europe in the early 19th century.

- Hitler: “Adolf Hitler was the leader of Nazi Germany from 1934 to 1945. He initiated fascist policies that led to World War II and the deaths of at least 11 million people, including the mass murder of an estimated 6 million Jews.” <http://www.biography.com/people/adolf-hitler-9340144>
- Third Reich [(reyekh, reyek)]
“The name given by the Nazis to their government in Germany; Reich is German for “empire.” Adolf Hitler, their leader, believed that he was creating a third German empire, a successor to the Holy Roman Empire and the German empire formed by Chancellor Bismarck in the nineteenth century.” <http://www.dictionary.com/browse/third-reich>

Stage 3. Time of the End – Prophecy of Daniel 8 and 9 – French Revolution

“According to the words of the prophet, then, a little before the year 1798 some power of satanic origin and character would rise to make war upon the Bible. And in the land where the testimony of God’s two witnesses should thus be silenced, there would be manifest the atheism of the Pharaoh and the licentiousness of Sodom.

This prophecy has received a most exact and striking fulfillment in the history of France. During the Revolution, in 1793, “the world for the first time heard an assembly of men, born and educated in civilization, and assuming the right to govern one of the finest of the European nations, uplift their united voice to deny the most solemn truth which man’s soul receives, and renounce unanimously the belief and worship of a Deity.”—Sir Walter Scott, Life of Napoleon, vol. 1, ch. 17. “France is the only nation in the world concerning which the authentic record survives, that as a nation she lifted her hand in open rebellion against the Author of the universe.” The Great Controversy, 269.

Stage 4. 1844 – 1888 – WWI – WWII and Islam

- 1798 marked the end of the First Papal Supremacy
- The time of the end
- The beginning of the work in the Most Holy Place in the Sanctuary above in 1844
- The period of defeat and dissolution of the Ottoman Empire (1908–1922)

“Muhammad[n 1] (Arabic: محمد; pronounced [muḥammad]; c. 570 CE – 8 June 632 CE)[1] is the central figure of Islam and widely identified as its founder by non-Muslims.[2] He is known as the “Holy Prophet” to Muslims, almost all of whom consider him to be the final prophet of God[3][n 2] to restore Islam, believed by Muslims to be the unaltered original monotheistic faith of Adam, Abraham, Moses, Jesus, and other prophets. Muhammad united Arabia into a single Muslim polity and ensured that his teachings, practices, and the Quran, formed the basis of Islamic religious belief.

Born approximately 570 CE (Year of the Elephant) in the Arabian city of Mecca, Muhammad was orphaned at an early age; he was raised under the care of his paternal uncle Abu Talib. Periodically, he would seclude himself in a mountain cave named Hira for several nights of prayer; later, at age 40, he reported being visited by Gabriel in the cave, where he stated he received his first revelation from God. Three years later, in 610, Muhammad started preaching these revelations publicly, proclaiming that "God is One", that complete "surrender" (lit. islām) to him is the only way (dīn)[n 3] acceptable to God, and that he was a prophet and messenger of God, similar to the other prophets in Islam. "

"Despite concerns about reliability of early sources, most historians believe that Islam originated in Mecca and Medina at the start of the 7th century [600 AD]. A century later, the Islamic empire extended from Iberia in the west to the Indus river in the east. Polities such as those ruled by the Umayyads (in the Middle East and later in Iberia), Abbasids, Fatimids, and Mamluks were among the most influential powers in the world. The Islamic civilization gave rise to many centers of culture and science and produced notable astronomers, mathematicians, doctors and philosophers during the Golden Age of Islam. Technology flourished; there was investment in economic infrastructure, such as irrigation systems and canals; and the importance of reading the Quran produced a comparatively high level of literacy in the general populace.

In the 13th and 14th centuries, destructive Mongol invasions from the East, along with the loss of population in the Black Death, greatly weakened the traditional centers of the Islamic world, stretching from Persia to Egypt, but in the Early Modern period, the Ottomans, the Safavids, and the Mughals were able to create new world powers again.

During the 19th and early 20th centuries most parts of the Muslim world fell under influence or direct control of European Great Powers. Their efforts to win independence and build modern nation states over the course of the last two centuries continue to reverberate to the present day." https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/History_of_Islam

"The Dome of the Rock was erected by the Muslim ruler Abd el-Malik in 688-691."

"The History of the Ottoman Empire during World War I began with the Ottoman's attack on Russia's Black Sea coast on 29 October 1914. The attack prompted Russia and its allies, Britain and France, to declare war on the Ottoman Empire in November 1914. The Ottoman Empire was active in the Balkans theatre and Middle Eastern theatre - the latter had five main campaigns: the Sinai and Palestine Campaign, the Mesopotamian Campaign, the Caucasus Campaign, the Persian Campaign, and the Gallipoli Campaign. There were also several minor campaigns: the North African Campaign, the Arab Campaign and the South Arabia Campaign. There were several important Ottoman victories in the early years of the war, such as the Battle of Gallipoli and the Siege of Kut. The Armistice of Mudros was signed on 31 October 1918, ending the Ottoman participation in World War I."

Stage 5. Wars and Rumors of Wars

- WWI (July 28, 1914 – November 11, 1918)
- The re-instating of the Vatican in 1929 by Mussolini, the dictator of Italy
- The rejection of the Biblical calendar revelation in 1939 by the SDA leadership
- WWII (September 1, 1939 – September 2, 1945)
- Korean War - Jun 25, 1950 – Jul 27, 1953 – USA defending South Korea
- Vietnam War - Nov 1, 1955 – Apr 30, 1975 – USA defending South Korea
- Vatican II – 1967
- Rise of Homosexuality – Gay Rights – “LGBT pride month that has been celebrated ever since June 1970 comes from the anniversary of the riots that occurred in 1969 at The Stonewall Inn in New York City in where predominantly trans women of color experienced police violence at an LGBTQ bar. Although LGBT activism began before this, much of the movement rose out of the outrage of this incident.”

Stage 6. Trumpets Sound

Without a doubt, the prophecies are unfolding before our very eyes and for the sake of time and repetition, here is a list of events from 1986 to today which should leave no doubt in our mind that the Man of Sin or the Son of Perdition, if allowed, will soon manifest himself. The Creator will allow his last act of rebellion before probation closes because He finally has a people ready to vindicate His character during the plagues.

- 1986 – Chernobyl and the Nuclear Energy accident

"And the third angel sounded, and there fell a great star from heaven, burning as it were a lamp, and it fell upon the third part of the rivers, and upon the fountains of waters; And the name of the star is called Wormwood: and the third part of the waters became wormwood; and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter."

Revelation 8:10-11

The book of Revelation describes cataclysmic events that are to happen in the end time. Part of these events are signaled by the blowing of seven trumpets by seven angels. At the sounding of the third trumpet in chapter 8, a great star called Wormwood was cast into the earth.

The world's worst ever nuclear meltdown occurred in 1986 at Chernobyl in Ukraine, at that time one of the states of the Soviet Union. Incredibly, Chernobyl is the Russian word for wormwood! It appears that the Chernobyl catastrophe was the fulfillment of the sounding of the third trumpet of Revelation 8!"

http://www.theforbiddenknowledge.com/hardtruth/chernobyl_wormwood.htm

“Wormwood is mentioned seven times in the Hebrew Bible, always with the implication of bitterness. Although the word wormwood appears several times in the Old Testament, translated from the Hebrew term לענה (la'anah, which means "curse" in Arabic and Hebrew), its only mention in the New Testament is in the Book of Revelation: "The third angel sounded his trumpet, and a great star, blazing like a torch, fell from the sky on a third of the rivers and on the springs of water— the name of the star is Wormwood. A third of the waters turned bitter, and many people died from the waters that had become bitter." (Rev 8:10–11)

The Greek word is believed to refer to a plant of the genus Artemisia, used metaphorically to mean something with a bitter taste. The English rendering "wormwood" refers to the dark green oil produced by the plant, which was used to kill intestinal worms. In the Book of Revelation, it refers to the water being turned into wormwood, i.e. made bitter." https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Wormwood_\(Bible\))

Stage 7. Peace when there is no Peace

- 1989 – The Fall of the Berlin’s Wall and the end of the Cold War with URSS

“The Berlin Wall: The Fall of the Wall. On November 9, 1989, as the Cold War began to thaw across Eastern Europe, the spokesman for East Berlin's Communist Party announced a change in his city's relations with the West. Starting at midnight that day, he said, citizens of the GDR were free to cross the country's borders.” www.history.com/topics/cold-war/berlin-wall

- New World Order announcement – President Bush Senior. – 1991 – “It is a big idea— a new world order where diverse nations are drawn together in common cause to achieve the universal aspirations of mankind: peace and security, freedom and the rule of law.”

January 29, 1991, President Bush alluded to warfare in the Persian Gulf. The Watchtower magazine, In Search of a New World Order, 7/15 1991.

- Desert Storm in Kuwait – Babylon old site - against Saddam Hussein of Iraq – 1991
- Distribution of Great Controversy throughout the world – 1991 - 1996
- Second rejection of the Biblical calendar in 1995 by SDA leadership
- Dies Domini 1998 – Sunday Law introduced
- September 2001 – Twin Towers destroyed – War on Terrorism started – George W. Bush, Junior.

“After the terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001, the Bush administration declared a worldwide "war on terror," involving open and covert military operations, new security legislation, efforts to block the financing of terrorism, and more.

Washington called on other states to join in the fight against terrorism asserting that "either you are with us, or you are with the terrorists." Many governments joined this campaign, often adopting harsh new laws, lifting long-standing legal protections and stepping up domestic policing and intelligence work.”

Critics charge that the "war on terrorism" is an ideology of fear and repression that creates enemies and promotes violence rather than mitigating acts of terror and strengthening security. The worldwide campaign has too often become an excuse for governments to repress opposition groups and disregard international law and civil liberties. Governments should address terrorism through international cooperation, using international law and respecting civil liberties and human rights.

Governments should also address the root causes of terrorism, notably political alienation due to prejudice, state-sponsored violence and poverty.”

<https://www.globalpolicy.org/war-on-terrorism.html>

- War in Afghanistan - 2001 - “The US-led war in Afghanistan was a response to the September 11 terrorist attacks on America. Coalition forces toppled the ruling Taliban in 2001, but stabilising the country is proving more challenging.” http://www.bbc.co.uk/history/the_war_in_afghanistan

Stage 8. Restoration of the Caliphate - Obama and the Muslims Insurrection - 2014 - Obama Leadership catered to the Muslim

“A caliphate (Arabic: خلافة khilāfa) is an area containing an Islamic steward known as a caliph (Arabic: خليفة khalīfah. About this sound pronunciation (help·info))—a person considered a religious successor to the Islamic prophet, Muhammad (Muhammad ibn ‘Abdullāh), and a leader of the entire Muslim community.[1] The Rashidun caliphs, who directly succeeded Muhammad as leaders of the Muslim community, were chosen through shura, a process of community consultation that some consider to be an early form of Islamic democracy.” <https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Caliphate>

“The restoration of the caliphate has for decades been the central goal of jihad groups worldwide. The caliphate (khilafa) was from the beginnings of Islam until the early twentieth century, at least among Sunnis (who constitute eighty-five to ninety percent of Muslims worldwide), the center of the supranational unity of the global Muslim community (umma). The caliph, who was theoretically chosen from among the most pious and capable men of the community, was considered to be the political, military and religious successor of Muhammad as the leader of the Muslim community. He ruled according to the dictates of the Sharia (Islamic law), implementing Allah’s decrees of justice on earth.

The caliphate was abolished by the secular Turkish government in 1924. The Muslim Brotherhood was founded in Egypt in 1928 partly as a reaction to the end of the caliphate, and from the beginning a central part of its program has been the need to work toward restoring it and then recovering lands that had been lost to Islam.” <https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Caliphate>

“The Caliphate was restored in 2014.”

“On June 21, 2013, Al Jazeera aired a speech of Professor Mohammed Malkawi, the founder of the Chicago-based organization Hizb ut-Tahrir (Party of Liberation) America, which is dedicated to non-violent implementation of Sharia in the U.S. and around the world. The speech illuminated the Islamic supremacist perspective on the abolition of the caliphate and the necessity for its restoration. Malkawi blamed non-Muslims for Islam’s decline and the fall of the caliphate: “After Islam had reached the peak of glory and the Muslims were masters of the world, there came a time when the infidels conspired against the Muslims, who were in a deep slumber. Britain conspired against them, along with Arab and Turkish collaborators and traitors, and ended the Islamic Caliphate and its glory.”

This was, he said, a great tragedy, for also like Barack Obama, Malkawi believed that a state based on Islamic law embodied justice: “Ever since the Caliphate was destroyed, the world has lost an exemplar of justice, a model for humanity in its entirety. Since then, the world has been held hostage by wolves, who do not respect the honor of a man or a believer. Two world wars cost the lives of over 70 million people, yet they accuse us of terrorism. They killed over 70 million people, and dropped atomic bombs on Japan, yet they level accusations against us.”

In contrast, Malkawi said, “We demand a state ruled by the Koran,” and led the crowd in chanting that phrase. Another speaker added: “We reject secularist rule. We reject the rule of Satan.”

Malkawi asserted that the U.S., and Barack Obama in particular, had made people “terrified of the word ‘caliphate.’”

Stage 9. History is repeating itself: “Those who cannot remember the past are condemned to repeat it.”

George Santayana (16 December 1863 in Madrid, Spain – 26 September 1952 in Rome, Italy) was a philosopher, essayist, poet and novelist.

- Islam is rising - 2014
- Papacy is rising – 2017 Reformation
- Wars are rising – Syria – Middle East
- Drought, floods, famine, pestilence are rising
- Economy failing
- The Beasts of Daniel 7 and Revelation 3 manifesting themselves: Babylon – Medo-Persia- Greece – Rome with modern Britain – USA – Russia – Germany – China – India and the Second Papal Supremacy gaining its place among the world leaders.

Stage 10. Morality is declining:

“As of April 2016, nineteen countries, most of them located in the Americas and Western Europe, recognize same-sex marriage and grant most of (if not all) the other rights listed above to its LGBT citizens.

Anti-LGBT laws include, but are not limited to, the following: sodomy laws penalizing consensual same-sex sexual activity with fines, jail terms, or the death penalty; anti-"lesbianism" laws; and higher ages of consent for same-sex activity.

In 2011, the United Nations Human Rights Council passed its first resolution recognizing LGBT rights, which was followed up with a report from the UN Human Rights Commission documenting violations of the rights of LGBT people, including hate crime, criminalization of homosexuality, and discrimination. Following up on the report, the UN Human Rights Commission urged all countries which had not yet done so to enact laws protecting basic LGBT rights.

As of May 2016, 16 countries have an unequal age of consent law.

As of August 2016, 72 countries as well as five sub-national jurisdictions[g] have laws criminalizing homosexuality, with most of them located in Asia and Africa. In 2006 that number was 92." https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/LGBT_rights_by_country_or_territory

Stage 11. Life has lost its value: Abortion, Suicide and Murder

Abortion: Offering our firstborn to Moloch

"Abortion Definition: the deliberate termination of a human pregnancy, most often performed during the first 28 weeks of pregnancy."

"According to WHO, every year in the world there are an estimated 40-50 million abortions. This corresponds to approximately 125,000 abortions per day.

In the USA, where nearly half of pregnancies are unintended and four in 10 of these are terminated by abortion, there are over 3,000 abortions per day. Twenty-two percent of all pregnancies in the USA (excluding miscarriages) end in abortion." <http://www.worldometers.info/abortions/>

Suicide: Assisted dying - Hitler all over again!

"The United States has authorized medical aid in dying in six states, which refers to a terminally ill person with 6 months or less to live taking a medication prescribed by a doctor; this is legally distinguished from physician assisted suicide per the individual state laws."

Assisted suicide - Wikipedia https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Assisted_suicide

"Doctor-assisted suicide could save Canada tens of millions of dollars annually by avoiding costly "end-of-life" care, according to a provocative new analysis.

The savings — up to $139 million annually — will almost certainly dwarf the costs associated with helping dying patients kill themselves, University of Calgary researchers report.

The authors go to pains to state they aren't suggesting people be voluntarily euthanized to save money. "Neither patients nor physicians should consider costs when making the very personal decision to request, or provide, this intervention," they write in this week's issue of the Canadian Medical Association Journal.

However, their attempt to cost out the controversial practice is an issue many have avoided touching." <http://news.nationalpost.com/news/0124-na-assisted-dying>

"At least 744 gravely ill adults received a doctor's help to end their lives since the medical procedure became legal across Canada in 2016, and experts say those numbers are expected to rise.

CTV News surveyed provincial and territorial health ministries to gather the most comprehensive picture of the practice to date. The numbers show that, on average, four Canadians per day had medically assisted deaths between June 17 and December 16, 2016.

Medical assistance in dying became legal across Canada in June 2016 after the Liberal government passed Bill C-14, which allowed Canadians with terminal illnesses where natural death was “reasonably foreseeable” to choose to die with a doctor’s help.”

Stage 12. Conversion and Leadership to Christianity

“A.D. 312, Constantine I was the first Roman Emperor to eventually convert to Christianity. Emperor Constantine I is often credited with converting the Roman Empire to Christianity. In fact, though he ended the persecution of Christians and eventually converted, some historians debate the true nature of his faith.”

Constantine the Great Rules - Time Line of Early Christianity--The Lost ...
www.nationalgeographic.com/lostgospel/timeline_10.html

His purpose was political and he wanted to unite Paganism with Christianity.

“In the year 300 AD, Christianity was a minority religion in the Roman Empire, practiced by perhaps ten percent of the population. In good years it was discriminated against; in bad years it was persecuted. By 400 AD, a century later, it had become the official religion practiced by pretty much everyone.”

“In the year 312 there ruled a Roman Emperor named Maxentius who had taken power illegally. He hated Christians and persecuted them. The proper heir to the throne, Constantine, marched on Rome to save the Empire. Before the two forces met in battle, Constantine saw a vision of a cross in the sky and the words “Conquer under this”. Constantine and his army converted to Christianity and painted the cross on their shields. The next day they defeated the pagans and brought Christianity to Rome.

This story is almost entirely wrong, yet it has resonated down the centuries through books, paintings, and films to become part of the Christian legend.

The truth is more complex. Maxentius and Constantine were both sons of emperors and thus equally legitimate. Maxentius did not persecute Christians, and the story of Constantine seeing a cross in the sky doesn’t appear in the texts until years after the battle. Constantine did defeat Maxentius and marched into Rome in triumph, bearing his rival’s severed head as a trophy. After the usual celebrations and gladiator spectacles, he built the Arch of Constantine, which has no Christian symbolism but does depict sacrifices to four pagan gods. In later years he built a number of grandiose churches, including the original St. Peter’s, but didn’t get baptized until his deathbed. Paganism remained legal throughout his reign.

Constantine gave one great boon to the Christians—he legalized their religion. From then on it rapidly gained more followers and began edging out the pagan cults. Soon it was the pagans being persecuted. Rioting monks trashed temples and killed pagan philosophers like Hypatia. In 382 the Altar of Victory was removed from its centuries-old home in the Senate. In 391 paganism was outlawed and temples shut all over the Empire. The old cults hung on for a few generations in rural areas, but Christianity was now the dominant power.

Traces of this incredible transformation are visible in Rome. At the Basilica di San Clemente a 12th century church is built atop a much earlier church. This earlier building was the home of a Roman noble, a secret Christian who invited fellow Christians into his home to worship, a common practice in the days when Christianity was illegal. Underneath his home lies a subterranean temple to the pagan god Mithras.”

Stage 13. Another Conversion and the Remaking of America

- President Obama promised Changes and Islam is now a familiar discussion among many!
- President Trump promised to Make America Great again! With a fresh conversion in his path, his main platform is for more security, immigration control and reciting the Lord’s Prayer in his official town meetings.
- The new Attorney General, Mr. Jeff Sessions, does not support Separation of Church and State:

“Senator Jeff Sessions, Trump’s pick for attorney general, claims the separation of church and state is “unconstitutional.”

Sessions, President-elect Donald Trump’s nominee for attorney general of the United States, is a moral monster with a terrible record on race, women, and the LGBT community. However, perhaps most alarming, Sessions is a radical Christian extremist who rejects the separation of church and state.

Americans United, the Freedom From Religion Foundation, and other sources all report that Sessions believes the separation of church and state is an “extra-constitutional doctrine” and “a recent thing that is unhistorical and unconstitutional.”

Supporting the separation of church and state should not be a controversial issue. However, the sad fact is many Republicans, and many conservative Christians, dispute the existence of the separation of church and state in the U.S. Constitution.

Technically, the words “separation of church and state” are not found in the U.S. Constitution. However, the sentiment and meaning behind the phrase is contained within the Establishment Clause of the First Amendment to the U.S. Constitution:
Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof...

The actual phrase “separation of church and state” is derived from a letter written by President Thomas Jefferson in 1802 to Baptists from Danbury, Connecticut, and published in a Massachusetts newspaper soon thereafter. The following is an excerpt from Jefferson’s famous Letter to the Danbury Baptist Association:

I contemplate with sovereign reverence that act of the whole American people which declared that their legislature should “make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof,” thus building a wall of separation between Church & State.

Thus, Jefferson makes clear that the separation of church and state is contained within the Establishment Clause of the First Amendment to the U.S. Constitution. Yet despite the irrefutable historical and constitutional evidence, Christian extremists like Sessions continue to deny the separation of church and state.

Bottom line: Anyone who claims the separation of church and state is an “extra-constitutional doctrine” and “a recent thing that is unhistorical and unconstitutional” is simply unqualified to serve as the attorney general of the United States.”

Stage 14. Coming up: the Celebration of the Reformation in October 2017 with Pope Francis leading the Parade – The blind leading the blind – “And all the world wonder after the beast.”

“Almost 500 years ago, on Oct. 31, 1517, German monk Martin Luther strode up to the door of All Saints Church in Wittenberg and nailed his 95 Theses for debate. He was attacking widespread abuses in the Catholic Church: Simony, nepotism, usury, pluralism, and the sale of indulgences.

The anniversary celebrations have already begun. In his homily at the close of the week of prayer for Christian unity, Pope Francis echoed Pope St John Paul II’s famous Ash Wednesday Jubilee apology and acknowledged the sins of Catholics against other Christians. He also told Catholics to forgive the wrongs done to them. The pope said injuries that had happened in the past can’t be canceled, but the burden of old wounds should not continue to harm the relations between Catholics and other Christians.

Pope Francis has built bridges with Protestants in remarkable ways. His personal friendship with the late Anglican-style bishop Tony Palmer, and his video greeting to American pentecostal preachers followed by a personal meeting, raised eyebrows among many Catholics and raised a cry of dismay among the most vocal of conservative Catholics.

Pope Francis’ outreach to Protestants will go to new lengths when he travels to Lund in Sweden in October 2016 to attend a service marking the 500th anniversary of the start of the Protestant Reformation.

Is this something to celebrate?

Catholic Opinion:

Francis critics would say the Reformation is something to be lamented, not celebrated. They observe that the Protestant Reformation not only shredded Catholic Christianity; it also plunged the body of Christian believers into endless schism, resulting in thousands of Protestant sects. The Reformation led to decades of war, revolution, and endless division and strife in Europe. Was it worth it? Instead of celebrating, shouldn't the pope be inviting Protestants to repent of their rebellion and "come home to Rome"?

Perhaps. Then again, he could be realistic and positive. The Catechism says that those Christians born into ecclesial bodies that are separated from Rome are not to be blamed for the division. The successor of Peter is the focus of unity not just for Catholics, but for the whole church. As such, it is his obligation to reach out to all Christians who are separated from full communion with the warm welcome of a father. We saw this remarkable welcome in the papacies of Pope St. John Paul II and Benedict XVI. Time and again, they reached out in their own way to Eastern Orthodox, Anglicans, Lutherans, Pentecostals, Baptists, and others. Pope Francis is simply following in their footsteps.

Critics of Pope Francis' celebration of the Reformation would do well to ignore sensationalist headlines and discover exactly what is planned for the service in Lund in October.

Rev. Dr. Martin Junge, the general secretary of the Lutheran World Federation explains that the federation is approaching the anniversary "in a spirit of ecumenical accountability," while Cardinal Kurt Koch, president of the Pontifical Council for Promoting Christian Unity, points out that the event is not so much a celebration as a commemoration focused on the path to unity.

"By concentrating together on the centrality of the question of God and on a Christocentric approach," he said, "Lutherans and Catholics will have the possibility of an ecumenical commemoration of the Reformation, not simply in a pragmatic way, but in the deep sense of faith in the crucified and resurrected Christ."

Conclusion

Between the Wormwood trumpet of Chernobyl in 1986 and the election of Mr. Trump in 2016, it should not leave the students of prophecy in great perplexity. We have been told these things will come to pass. If His people are ready to vindicate His Character, He will let the four winds blow.

The question is: Will we be part of the group who stands for Him though the heavens fall?

Or, will we deny Him as Peter did in his time of fear?

“All the vast, complicated machinery of evil agencies is put into action in these last days. Through generation after generation, from age to age, Satan has gathered human agencies through whom to work his diabolical purposes, and to bring about the enforcements of his plans and devices in the earth. The great putred fountain of evil has been continually flowing through human society. Though being unable to expel God from His throne, Satan has charged God with satanic attributes and has claimed the attributes of God as his own. He is a deceiver, and through his serpentine sharpness, through his crooked practices, he has drawn to himself the homage which man should have given to God, and has planted his satanic throne between the human worshiper and the divine Father.

But in man’s behalf Christ met the specious temptations of Satan, and left to man an example as to how to overcome Satan in the conflict. He exhorts His followers, saying, “Be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.” Satan has made masterly efforts to perpetuate sin. He arrayed all his evil agencies to war against Jesus Christ in an active, desperate conflict, in order that he might bruise the heart of infinite love. He seduced the people to bow to idols, and thus gained supremacy over earthly kingdoms. He considered that to be the god of this world was the next best thing to gain possession of the throne of God in heaven. In a large measure he has been successful in his plans and has led the people to reject Christ in His holy character, and to choose Barabbas who in character represented Satan, the god of this world.

The Lord Jesus Christ came to dispute the usurpation of Satan in the kingdoms of the world. The conflict is not yet ended, and as we draw near the close of time, the battle waxes more intense. As the second appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ draws near, satanic agencies are moved from beneath. Satan will not only appear as a human being, but he will impersonate Jesus Christ, and the world who has rejected the truth will receive him as the lord of lords, and king of kings. He will exercise his power and work upon the human imagination. He will corrupt both the minds and bodies of men, and work through the children of disobedience, fascinating and charming as does a serpent. What a spectacle will the world be for heavenly intelligences! What a spectacle for God, the Creator of the world, to behold!

The form Satan assumed in Eden when leading our first parents to transgress was of a character to bewilder and confuse the mind. He will work in a subtle manner as we near the end of earth’s history. All his deceiving power will be brought to bear upon human subjects to complete the work of deluding the human family. So deceptive will be his working that men will do as they did in the days of Christ, and when asked, Whom shall I release unto you, Christ or Barabbas? the almost universal cry will be Barabbas, Barabbas. And when the question is asked, What will ye then that I shall do unto him whom ye call the King of the Jews? the cry again will be, Crucify him.

Christ will be represented in the person of those who accept the truth, and who identify their interest with that of their Lord. The world will be enraged at them in the same way as they were enraged at Christ, and the disciples of Christ will know that they are to be treated no better than was their Lord. But Christ will surely identify His interest with that of those who accept of Him as their personal Saviour. Every insult, every reproach, every false accusation made against them by those who have turned their ears away from the truth, and are turned unto fables, will be charged upon the guilty one as done to Christ in the person of His saints.

Those who love and keep the commandments of God are most obnoxious to the synagogue of Satan, and the powers of evil will manifest their hatred towards them to the fullest extent possible. John foresaw the conflict of the remnant church and the powers of evil, and said, "The dragon was wroth with the woman, and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, which keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ." The forces of the powers of darkness will unite with human agents who have given themselves into the control of Satan, and the same scenes that were exhibited at the trial, rejection, and crucifixion of Christ will be revived. Through yielding to satanic influences men will be merged into fiends and those who were created in the image of God, who were formed to honor and glorify their Creator, will become the habitation of dragons, and Satan will see in an apostate race his masterpiece of evil—men who reflect his own image."
